Cookie policy

This information on the use of cookies made through this site is provided to the user in implementation of the provisions of directive 2002/58 / EC (so-called ePrivacy directive) and subsequent amendments, of EU Regulation 2016/679 (hereinafter GDPR), for what specifically concerns the notion of consent referred to in Articles 4, point 11) and 7 and in recital 32, as most recently interpreted by the Guidelines 05/2020 on consent under Regulation 2016/679 adopted on May 4, 2020, and the Guidelines on the use of cookies and other tracking tools " of 26 November 2020 of the Privacy Guarantor.

The information is prepared and updated by CANTINA SOCIALE DEL NEBBIOLO di VEZZA D'ALBA SOCIETA' COOPERATIVA AGRICOLA, manager of the website and owner of the processing of personal data connected to it, with registered office in VIA TORINO 17, 12040 VEZZA D'ALBA (CN).

Any further request regarding the use of cookies on this website may be sent to the email address info@cantinadelnebbiolo.com.

You may use the same address to use at any time the rights that the Regulation assigns you as an interested party (Article 15 of the Regulation: for example, access, cancellation, updating, rectification, integration, etc.). If the conditions are met, it is possible to submit a complaint to the Supervisory Authority (www.garanteprivacy.it).

WHAT ARE COOKIES?

Cookies are small text strings that the visited website or third parties place and store on the user's device (be it a PC, smartphone, tablet, IoT device, ...). The browser with which you are browsing can store cookies and transmit them again to the site that generated them on the occasion of a subsequent visit, thus maintaining memory of the previous interaction. The information encoded in the cookies may include personal data, such as IP address, username, unique identifier or e-mail address, but may also contain non-personal data, such as language settings or information on the type of device used.

Cookies can be divided into three macro-categories based on the purpose:

- Technical cookies. Technical cookies are necessary for the website to function properly and to allow navigation; without them some pages may not be displayed correctly or it may be impossible to use some services of the site. For example, a technical cookie is essential to keep the user connected throughout the visit to a website (so-called navigation or session cookies), or to memorize the language settings, the display, and so on. The installation of these cookies is automatic upon accessing the website and the user's consent is NOT required for this to happen.
- Analytical cookies. Analytical cookies are used to evaluate the effectiveness of the website or to help measure its "traffic", that is, the number of visitors broken down by geographical area, connection time or other characteristics. User consent is NOT required for first-party or third-party anonymized analytical cookies.

- Profiling cookies. Profiling cookies are used in order to send advertising messages in line with the preferences expressed by the user while browsing and can only be used with prior consent. This site does not use profiling cookies.

We can also divide cookies according to the subjects involved in:

- Direct or first party cookies. These are cookies sent directly by the operator of the site the user is visiting.
- Third party cookies. These are cookies installed by a different site through the first.
